DIX, LOGAN AND SHERIDAN COMING

Two transports are now headed for Honolulu and will arrive here the latter part of next week. One is the big transport Dix, which is loaded with hay and grain, horses, mules and other stock intended for the quartermaster's department at Manila. The vessel has already sailed from San Francisco and is expected here during the coming week. The Sheridan from Manila, sailed from Nagasaki on July 22 and will probably arrive on August 5. The transport Logan leaves San Francisco on Monday en route to Manila, via Honolulu.

Judge Dole will sit today for taking the evidence of sailors of the Olympic who are leaving port, in the admiralty suit against that vessel brought by Mary P. K. Makalilihi for $50,000 damages on account of the fatal accident to Samuel Makalilihi, her alleged husband, on board that vessel in Honolulu harbor. The trial of the case will not take place until next term.
